

PEOPLE WHO LINGER
AT VIRGINIA BEACHFish Fries at the Cape Popular.
Princess Anne
German.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA., August 25.—Previous ventures with "fish fries" at the Casino at the Cape have been so successful both financially and socially that they have led other churches into the scheme. Ebenezer Methodist Church, of Princess Anne, gave a "fry" Thursday last, at which it was estimated that the proceeds were entirely satisfactory. The money is to be devoted to the church general fund. Quite a large number of the members and their friends assembled during the day and enjoyed the plentiful dinner that was served.

Mr. John Watson, of Petersburg, led the regular weekly service at the Princess Anne Saturday night last. About twenty couples were on the floor, and were guided through a number of novel and pretty figures. The German lasted from 9:30 P. M. until midnight.

Such was the game played at a very enjoyable morning card party given in the parlors of the Princess Anne last Monday. Mrs. Mitchell Ellis, of Cincinnati, carried off the first prize, a pair of blue silk hose. Mrs. W. S. Viley came second and received a pair of long white gloves, and Miss Christine Cooke, of Alabama, won a box of Huyler's as the consolation prize. Among those playing were Mrs. Yaffe, Mrs. L. D. Smith, Mrs. Thomas W. West, Mrs. C. E. Marshall, Mrs. E. J. Charles, Mrs. E. J. Bryan, Miss Katherine Gunn, Misses Helen and Emma Trant, Miss Margaret Burk, Miss Hawkins, Miss Lowenburg and Messrs. C. E. Marshall, Thomas Vilko and George Hanson.

Mr. John Watson was the host at a charming dish party given at the Princess Anne Hotel Friday evening in honor of Miss Christine Cooke, of Annapolis. Those invited to meet Miss Cooke included Mrs. Bryan, of Norfolk; Miss Wilmore, of Petersburg; Mr. Coleman, of Norfolk; Mr. Wilmore, of Richmond; and Mr. George Hanson, of Richmond.

Miss Harriet Ebaugh, of Raleigh, is at the beach for a two weeks' stay. Miss Maud Anderson and Mr. George Anderson, of Washington, are visiting Mrs. A. G. Lewis, at her cottage, at Cape Henry.

Mrs. Hartwell Harrison, of Norfolk, is at the beach for the week.

Mrs. Joseph Peabody, of Norfolk, is spending the week at an ocean front cottage.

Mrs. Garfield and Miss Garfield, of Washington, are stopping at the Pannill Cottage for the month.

Mrs. George Peterson and Miss Peterson, of Baltimore, are at the Pannill Cottage.

Mrs. Louis Hillard is entertaining Mr. John J. Gibson and Master John Gibson at her cottage at the beach.

Mrs. Plummer Pannill and Miss Martha Pannill are visiting Mrs. Virginia Pannill, at the beach.

Mrs. Norrell, of Chase City, is a guest for a few weeks at the Pannill Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris, of Washington, are registered at the Buckingham, at the Cape, for a brief visit.

Mr. Robert Gaylord, of Washington, was a visitor to friends at the Cape on Wednesday last, while en route to Boston, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Lyman, of New York and Washington, are recent guests to arrive at the Buckingham for a two weeks' visit.

THE YELLOW SULPHUR.

A Brilliant Bal Poudre and Round of Card Parties.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
YELLOW SULPHUR SPRINGS, VA., August 25.—As August begins, the yellow sulphur springs seem to have a fresh impetus, and the past week has been one full to the limit, with all forms of entertainment.

Cards, bowling and informal suppers in the afternoon and evening, with each day the arrival of some old friend or pleasant stranger defying boredom and help make the days pass by.

Thursday morning Mrs. Priestly Toulmin, of Birmingham, gave a progressive euchre party, and at the conclusion of two hours of spirited playing, Miss Bessie Carter, of Danville, was presented with the first prize, Mrs. J. S. Duncomb with the lone hand prize, while Mrs. Handy was successful for the consolation.

Friday morning, Mrs. Hobson, of Alabama entertained, and again the game was euchre. Mrs. J. C. Jones, of this place, was the victor, Miss Gill, of Huntsville, for first prize, Miss Martin winning the lone hand, and Mrs. Rittner, the consolation.

Friday and Saturday nights were devoted exclusively to dancing, and with the advent of a number of young men now spending the vacation here and the presence of an unusually large number of visitors from the neighboring towns, the ball-room was a sight to delight the eye of the beholder, no matter how blasé. Particularly was this so on Saturday night, when the ball-room was in full swing, and the dancing was ever dear to the feminine heart, and despite his expressed distaste for such vanity, more men like just a little of it if not applied with too lavish a hand.

Saturday morning Mrs. Magruder and Mrs. Addison were the hostesses for the morning card party, and the close presence of Mrs. Proudfitt, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Ryerson, with first, consolation and lone hand prizes in the order named.

Mrs. Thomas N. Jones gave a bowling party Monday. For the ladies, Miss Wade, Miss Vail and Miss Marion Thompson received first, consolation and lone hand prizes, and for the men, Hill Martin and Mr. Wade were the most skillful, and the booby, respectively.

Monday night, Miss Nannie Thomas, of Smithfield, gave a large card party, and at its close served most delicious refreshments, consisting of the famous as well as genuine Smithfield ham, cake and other dainties. Miss Eugenie Martin and Mrs. Ivy were also made happy with first prize and consolation.

Tuesday morning Miss Lella McGowan, of Memphis, was the hostess for the euchre club, and there was no abatement in the zeal or fervor of the players.

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. N. D. Martin had a few intimate friends as guests at an informal bridge party, which was most delightful.

Wednesday morning Mrs. Ferrebee, of Norfolk, gave a morning of pleasure to her friends in the form of a card party, and when time was called, she bestowed the pretty prizes on Mrs. J. S. Duncomb and Mrs. T. N. Jones, for first and second, while Miss Bessie had to accept the honor of booby.

Wednesday night, Mrs. George Ivy afforded a number of her friends an evening of enjoyment with one of her ever popular card parties.

RAWLEY SPRINGS IS FULL TO OVERFLOWINGA Large Richmond Contingent
Swells the Happy Family.

RAWLEY SPRINGS, VA., August 25.—Rawley is full to overflowing, and many guests have been turned away for lack of accommodation. Among the guests are many devotees, who for years have drunk at this life-giving fountain, and others who for the first time have felt the magic thrill of this iron in their blood. Old guests and new form one large happy family and mingle with a democratic freedom so characteristic of mountain resorts.

Among the many good bowlers here, Dr. John E. Hansbrough, of Orange, now 75 years old, holds, as he has done for years, the championship, while Col. H. T. Holladay, of Rapidan, 78 years old, is a close second. "There were giants in those days," when these men came to earth.

The tennis court on the green lawn, with its players in white, presents a pleasing scene.

On the porches and pavilions the skilled fingers deftly ply the swift needles that make intricate and exquisite designs. The "old swimming pool" and Blue Hole, down at the river, with their limpid waters, give joy to the amphibious youth.

In the evening the ball-room claims its quota of the brave and the true. The Alpine Club has a large and enthusiastic membership. Some from Prospect View see the sun rise over the Blue Ridge to flood the superb Valley of Virginia with its golden rays. Others see the King of Day set in glory in the "faintest circle of the West." The more romantic slowly wind their way to Ball-Room Rock of Lovers' Leap, and linger, "meshed in a maiden's tender talk."

Those from Richmond are: R. L. Christian, E. A. Catlin and family, O. H. Fustler and family, Mrs. Archer Anderson, Miss Kathleen Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Guigon, William F. Fox, Mrs. William A. Campbell, Miss Carrie Leo Campbell, Judge B. T. Crump and family, Mr. McIntire, Miss McIntire, Mrs. H. M. Reinhardt and son, Miss Elizabeth Fisher, from Roanoke—R. H. Fishburne, Miss Fishburne, Mrs. J. Harvey Garvin, from Orange—Miss Lucy B. Tallafiero, Dr. John S. Hansbrough, T. O. Gillum, from Baltimore—Mrs. B. T. Fendall, Miss Fendall, Mason Fendall, from Farmville—Mrs. A. C. Crallo, E. B. Crallo, F. W. Walton, from Staunton—Mrs. H. M. Bell, Miss J. Crane, from Newport News—Miss Mary L. Selden, Miss Nancy C. Reynolds, from Louisville—Miss Linda Ramey, H. S. Ramey, Miss Sallie Ray, Wallace, Mrs. Leo E. Crallo, Jr., Dr. J. K. Mason, from Cambridge—L. L. Campbell, from Washington—Misses Louie and Julia Meade, from Alexandria—Mrs. James B. Johnston and son, from Fredericksburg—Miss Nettie Plough, Mrs. E. L. Minor, Miss Minor, Mrs. J. B. Blackford and daughter, Miss Margaret Baker, from Chicago—W. W. Tutwiler and family, from Lancaster—Judge John C. Ewell, from Louisville—E. M. Crank, from Connelville, Pa.—Misses Pearl and Eva Fries, from Fayetteville, N. C.—Miss Ellen Brandt, Miss Ellen Smith, from The Plains—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cochran and family, Miss Fannie Taylor, from Harrisonburg—Mrs. George G. Gratton, George Warren, Edward Switzer, Robert Mrs. W. H. Hunter, from South Boston—Miss Lizzie Easley. In addition to the above, there are many other guests.

GAY AT AFTON.

The Hotel Filled and Many Pleasures Enjoyed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AFTON, VA., August 25.—The week started in with bright days and jolly times for young and old. There were dances and euchre parties to keep all interested and amused.

Mrs. A. Hunter, maintaining her usual popularity as a mountain resort, and the Afton House has been taxed to its utmost capacity this week to accommodate the many guests coming in on every train. Of the many enjoyable events of the week, the hop given on Monday evening by Messrs. Samuel and Robert Goodloe, W. Bailey Saunders and J. Ezekiel, gave the most pleasure. At an early hour the spacious ball-room was filled with many beautiful women and as many men. The early hours were given to the children. The little lasses, in their dainty white frocks, and the lads, in their evening suits, made a beautiful picture as they were led in the grand march by Master Goodloe and little Miss Riddick, daughter of Mayor Riddick, of Norfolk. Master Henry McHenry, of Louisville, Ky., with tiny Miss Thierman, of Richmond, were an especially beautiful little couple.

At 8 o'clock the floor was cleared for the older folks, and with plenty of splendid music and a large number of good dancers, the ball was a decided success. About 10 o'clock the dancing was over, and many of the dancers remained until the "wee, wee" hours.

Among those dancing were Mrs. Sinton, of Baltimore, with Mr. W. Bailey Saunders, of Richmond; Mr. Samuel Goodloe, with Mrs. Mary R. Frost; Mrs. Anthony Thierman, with Mr. John C. Goodloe; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lumsden; Miss Kolner, with Mr. Fitch; Miss Eubank, with Mr. Robert Goodloe; Miss Wynne, with Mr. D. L. Lipscomb; Miss W. W. Goldbarth; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ewing; Mr. and Mrs. H. Martin; Mr. and Mrs. Ezekiel Hall; Mr. and Mrs. John McHenry.

The subscription euchre party of Saturday evening, arranged by Mrs. Ford, of Richmond, was very enjoyable. Mrs. Ford has been untiring in her efforts to entertain and give pleasure to the guests, and many expressions of praise and appreciation are heard on every side. The week's gaieties were saddened by the news of the death of Mrs. H. S. McCutcheon, of Russellville, Ky., so well remembered as the lovely Miss McHenry, who for several seasons was with her, and her graceful, attractive manners. She spent several days at the Afton House this season, and left with her husband, bright and well and happy. The news of her death will bring sadness to many who loved and admired her.

Recent arrivals at Afton are Mrs. Charles Lefew, Miss Mildred Lefew, Henry B. Brainer, A. H. Kuhn, Lewis E. Straus, Mrs. A. H. Thierman and child, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, G. L. Hudgins, Sam Ver Lee, of Richmond; B. B. Burton and wife, Norfolk; D. Frank Walker, South Boston; M. Bradley, Staunton; A. G. Pifer, Staunton.

RAPIDAN AFFAIRS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RAPIDAN, VA., August 25.—To-day is the first fair day through this section for some time. The weather has been very rainy and the succession of showers this month have been severe. The river as well as the creeks have been gradually swollen by the rains. The river has not been so it could be forded this month.

Mr. Holladay's mill was greatly damaged last week by the freshest in the river. It was thought to be in danger of coming apart.

The farmers are greatly hindered by the inclement weather. It is feared that they will be very late completing their fall work. The oldest residents say it has been the rainiest August ever seen. It is hoped that there will now be some fair weather. The heat through August has been intense, and it is still very warm.

Mr. R. M. Cutshall and family have moved to Mill Point, Va., to live.

Mr. J. K. Row is building a mill at his home on Mine Run, near Locust Grove, Orange county. The dam is nearing completion. Mr. Row hopes to have the mill in operation by the first of December. It is built at the same place where a mill stood years ago. There will be a nice road across the dam, which will be a great improvement, as the road now used is very rough.
